Academy of Medical Royal Colleges

fom Faculty of Occupational Medicine

Good Work is Good for You – Promoting Work as a Health Outcome

Tuesday 09 April 2019, America Square Conference Centre
No.1, America Square, 17 Crosswall, London EC3N 2LB

09:00 – 09:30	Registration
09:30 – 09:40	Introduction Professor Carrie MacEwen, Chair, Academy of Medical Royal Colleges
09:40 – 10:10	What are the benefits of work as a health outcome? Professor Gina Radford, Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Department of Health Dr Anne de Bono, President, Faculty of Occupational Medicine (FOM)
10:10 – 10:40	Keynote session: Dr Steve Boorman, CBE, Chair, Council for Work and Health
10:40 – 11.00	Morning break
11.00 – 11:40	The challenges What stops us working? A patient perspective: Dr Allan Cole, Former Medical Director and Consultant Anaesthetist The community view: Dr Sarah Dorrington, Donald Dean Clinical Research Fellow
11:40 – 12:20	Breakout 1 Managing Menopause at work Debra Holloway Nurse Consultant Gynaecology, Guys & St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust and Chair of Royal College of Nursing Women's Forum	Breakout 2 Raising awareness of dementia in the workforce Karyn Davies, Mental Health Nurse, Senior Lecturer, University of South Wales	Breakout 3 Supporting employees with cancer as patients or carers Dr. Charles Goss, Consultant Occupational Physician and Head of Service, University Hospitals of Leicester NHS Trust OH Service and the MacMillan Team	Breakout 4 Managing Musculoskeletal conditions at work Professor Karen Walker-Bone, Professor in Occupational Rheumatology	Breakout 5 Support and Promote Mental Health Dr Harj Kaul, Consultant Occupational Physician
12:20 – 13:00	LUNCH
13:00 – 14.00	Practical approaches to helping people back to work Professor Debbie Cohen OBE, School of Medicine, Cardiff University (Chair) Dr Rob Hampton GP, Health & Work Clinical Champion, Public Health England Dr Shriti Pattani GP, Health & Work Clinical Champion, Public Health England and Chair NHS Health at Work Network Natalie Beswetherick, Director of Practice and Development, Chartered Society of Physiotherapy
14:00 – 14:30	Good work to attract and retain global capability Dr Richard Heron, Vice President Health and Chief Medical Officer BP plc
14:30 – 15:00	Delivering work as a health outcome: How will you change your practice? Alastair Henderson, CE AoMRC
15:00 – 15:45	Panel Discussion: How to deliver health as a work outcome. How can you change your practice? Professor Carrie MacEwen, AoMRC (Chair) Helen Donovan, Professional Lead for Public Health Nursing, RCN Dr Anne Bono, President, Faculty of Occupational Medicine Professor Gina Radford, Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Department of Health Dr. Jain Holmes, Research occupational therapist, School of medicine, University of Nottingham
15:45	Close: Professor Gina Radford Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Department of Health

This programme is accurate at time of publication. It is subject to change.