

Statement

January 30th 2018

We welcome the proposal from the General Medical Council to look at the use of Gross Negligence Manslaughter legislation in medical practise.

The Academy Council will be considering the wider implications arising from this tragic case at it's meeting on the 7th of February 2018.

ENDS